Forward Looking Statement

Today's presentation contains different statements that could be construed as being forward-looking information. In general, any statement which does not constitute a historical fact, may be deemed a forward-looking statement. Expressions such as "expect", "potential", "estimate", "intend", "are confident that", "will" and other similar expressions are generally indicative of forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are based upon certain assumptions regarding the Canadian food industry, the general economy, and our annual budget as well as our 2016-2017 action plan.

More particularly and without limitation, this presentation contains forward-looking statements and information concerning statements or implications about the anticipated benefits of the combination of METRO inc. and The Jean Coutu Group (PJC) Inc. (the "Transaction"), including future financial and operating results of the combined entity, the anticipated financing structure of the Transaction, the anticipated timing for the special meeting of Jean Coutu Group shareholders and the anticipated timing for the completion of the Transaction. METRO has provided forward-looking statements in reliance on certain assumptions that it believes are reasonable at this time, including assumptions as to the ability of the parties to receive, in a timely manner and on satisfactory terms, the necessary regulatory approvals and approval of the Transaction by Jean Coutu Group shareholders; the ability of the parties to satisfy, in a timely manner, the other conditions to the closing of the Transaction; and other expectations and assumptions concerning the Transaction.

These forward-looking statements do not provide any guarantees as to the future performance of the Company and are subject to potential risks, known and unknown, as well as uncertainties that could cause the outcome to differ significantly. A description of the risks which could have an impact on these statements can be found under the "Risk Management" section of the 2016 Annual Report. Risks and uncertainties inherent in the nature of the Transaction include without limitation the failure of the parties to obtain the necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals, or to otherwise satisfy the conditions to the completion of the Transaction, in a timely manner, or at all; significant transaction costs or unknown liabilities; failure to realize the expected benefits of the Transaction; and general economic conditions. We believe these statements to be reasonable and pertinent at this time and represent our expectations. The Company does not intend to update any forward-looking statements, except as required by applicable law.

In addition certain non IFRS financial measures may be discussed or referred to today. These measures are for information purposes only. They do not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other public companies.

Transaction Overview

Transaction / Consideration

- Acquisition of 100% of PJC's outstanding Class A and Class B shares for equity consideration of $4.5 billion
 - EV / LTM EBITDA of 14.0x and 11.3x adjusted for synergies
- PJC shareholders to receive, at their election:
 - i. $24.50 in cash, or
 - ii. 0.61006 of a Metro common share
- Subject to proration such that 75% of the consideration will be in cash and 25% in Metro shares
- On a fully pro-rated basis, PJC shareholders will receive $18.38 in cash and 0.15251 of a Metro common share for each PJC share

Financing

- Committed financing in place for $3.4 billion cash component
 - $1.1 billion of new Metro shares will be issued to existing PJC shareholders
- Flexibility to sell some or all of investment in Alimentation Couche-Tard over time to reduce leverage
- Metro expected to maintain its current BBB investment grade credit rating

Approvals

- Transaction unanimously approved by Board of Directors of both Metro and PJC
- Subject to the approval of 66^{2/3}% of votes cast by PJC shareholders, voting as a single class
- Coutu family has irrevocably committed to vote all of their Class A and Class B shares (representing a 93.2% aggregate voting interest) in favour of the transaction
- Regulatory approvals required

Timing

- Special meeting of PJC shareholders to occur in November 2017
- Transaction is expected to close in the first half of 2018

Financing Structure

- Financing structured to maintain current BBB investment grade credit rating
- $3.4 billion of committed bank facilities fully underwritten
- Flexibility to sell some or all of Alimentation Couche-Tard investment over time
- Adjusted Net Debt / EBITDAR < 3.0x at closing⁽¹⁾
- $0.6 billion of undrawn revolver and significant pro forma free cash flow generation
