“There is nothing more difficult to carry out, nor more doubtful of success, nor more dangerous to handle, than to initiate a new order of things. For the reformer has enemies in all who profit by the old order, and only luke-warm defenders in all those who would profit by the new order. This luke warmness arises partly from fear of their adversaries who have his majesty’s incumbents in their favor; and partly from the incredulity of mankind, who do not truly believe in anything new until they have had an actual taste of it”.

- Machiavelle, The Prince, 1513
